

Writing

(Dear teacher),

I am writing to provide feedback on the summer English course that my classmates and I attended last year. Overall, the course had both strengths and weaknesses, which I will outline bellow. ^{so}

Firstly, the lessons were great. Our teacher focused on various aspects of the English language, including pronunciation, which was particularly helpful. The lessons were interactive. Additionally, the small class sizes allowed for individual attention and enhanced participation.

Furthermore, the course provided an excellent opportunity to interact with students from different countries. This multicultural atmosphere enabled us to learn about different cultures while practicing English skills.

The facilities at the college were good. The classrooms were equipped with modern technologys.

However, there were a few areas that could be improved. Firstly, we found the amount of homework excessive, which sometimes impeded our ability to fully engage in other activities organized by the college.

In conclusion, despite the weaknesses, I recommend this Summer English course.

(Thank you for considering our feedback.)
